Breakout Session 1 New Directions in Privacy Law

10:50 a.m. States are rushing to pass privacy laws, and it is looking more likely that Congress will be paralyzed. What strategies are being contemplated for complying with a multitude of state laws? What are some of the most challenging elements of the new laws? The FTC is also looking to enhance its role, possibly considering a rulemaking. What future direction should the FTC take?

12:10 p.m. Lunch

Breakout Session 2 EU Privacy Law: AI, Data Transfers, and Beyond

1:10 p.m. Uncertainty still remains about cross-border data transfers after Schrems II. What are the latest approaches to cross-border data transfer? In what ways has enforcement of the GDPR been predictable or surprising? What do you foresee as the future direction for GDPR enforcement? What are the implications of the new AI draft regulation?

2:30 p.m. Refreshments

Breakout Session 3 Hot Topics

3:00 p.m. We will explore a handful of topics that are causing the greatest headlines, headaches, and heartache for privacy professionals. The final topics will be developed in consultation with attendees in advance of the Roundtable.

4:20 p.m. Closing Reception

5:00 p.m. End of Roundtable
